Mississippi. OFFICE ACDITOR PUBLIC ACCOUNTS, JACKSON, MISS., Dec. 24th, 1880. BY THE PROVISIONS OF AN ACT OF the Legislature, entitled "an Act to systematize the records of State tax-lands, facilitate Tax Collectors' settlements, and for other purposes," approved March 6, 1880, it was made incumbent upon me to have compiled, for the use of this office, and for each county, a record of lands held by the State for taxes.

It being known that a considerable percent age of all lands claimed by the State were not, in fact, owned by it, for the reason that own-ers had paid the taxes for which such lands purported to have been sold, one of the prime objects of the law in question was to apprise owners of the State's apparent claim, and enable them to have such lands released from the State's record, and returned to the assess-
